Dear Mr. Savell:

Congratulations. You have joined a distinguished group of members we honor as Empire State Counsel for their outstanding contribution in rendering 50 or more hours of free legal services to the poor in 2006.

Enclosed are a certificate, a lapel pin, and a name tag ribbon, along with a brochure about the new program. As you know, you may use your honorific title Empire State Counsel as a credential. You will also receive special recognition from the Association, including in the State Bar News, on our Web site, and in press releases.

Thank you for your generous efforts in providing free legal services to poor New Yorkers and serving the highest ideals of our profession by seeking to achieve justice for the most vulnerable among us.

Sincerely,
